Welcome Message

Dear colleagues,

On behalf of Veterinarians in Korea, it is our great honor to invite you to the 33rd World Veterinary Congress (WVC Incheon, KOREA 2017) to be held from 27 to 31 August 2017 in Incheon, Korea.

The Congress program will include a number of prominent sessions and events spread over the four days. Korean Veterinarians are putting lots of efforts with great passion for the developments of veterinary field such as animal health care, quarantine, preventing zoonosis, food safety, and animal welfare. We collaborate with the central government and the local government, and veterinary related organizations of Korea to make this event wonderful. We hope this congress could provide an opportunity to debate regarding current veterinary issues and solutions with veterinarians all around the world.

We ask for your interest and participation in WVC Incheon, KOREA 2017.

Thank you.

Theme

“One Health, New Wave”

The 33rd World Veterinary Congress is aimed at promoting and raising awareness about One Health, an emerging concept that encompasses the health of humans, animals and their environment, across the globe as well as sharing New Wave of the New Technologies in all disciplines of veterinary clinical medicine and creating a new trend in the field.

Emblem

The center of the Congress symbol shows a silhouette of a human surrounded animals and clouds that represents the nature and thereby delivers a message that veterinarians co-exist with animals, with a theme of One Health, "The health of humans, animals and ecosystems are all interconnected."

World Veterinary Congress is a festive gathering where veterinarians from around the world converge as one; and to symbolize the gathering, 5 colors that represent the 5 continents were used, blue (Europe), black (Africa), red (America), yellow (Asia) and green (Oceania).
