WVC Incheon, KOREA 2017 is expected to attract 4,000 or so veterinarians of 103 countries, many of whom exert considerable influence on the vet industry. In the sense, the Congress serves as a perfect platform for your company/organization to promote your brand along with products and services in the most efficient way in the shortest time.

In reality, intensified marketing activities delivered over the five-days Congress period will allow your company to gain an edge over your competitors. Varied, strategically developed sponsorship program will encourage participants to visit your booths, let alone boosting the awareness of your brand.

You will find the best benefits by sponsoring WVC Incheon, KOREA 2017, one of the world’s largest vet events with the most influential figures participating.

On May 19, Thursday at the Korea Press Center in Seoul, a briefing for exhibition and sponsorship was held attended by some 100 people from the veterinary industry.

Additional Benefits for Sponsors

Please refer to the sponsorship prospectus and do not miss out on the additional benefits for sponsors. There will be free registration, newsletters, congress bag inserts, discounts on additional booths on various items available.
