WORLD VETERINARY DAY AWARD

The World Veterinary Association (WVA) and HealthforAnimals are proud to announce the 2021 World Veterinary Day theme:

Veterinarian response to the Covid-19 crisis

The 2021 World Veterinary Day will be held on 24th April 2021 and is an opportunity to celebrate the contributions of veterinarians to the health of animals, people and the environment.

Applications are now open for the World Veterinary Day Award, which honours one WVA Member's activities related to 2021's theme.

Applications are due by 24th May 2021.

The Theme

The continuing COVID-19 pandemic, caused by severe acute respiratory syndrome coronavirus 2 (SARS-CoV-2) changed life as we know it and significantly affected the global human and animal populations.

And yet, through this challenging time, veterinary medicine meaningfully and rapidly evolved, demonstrating veterinarian's ability to cope, adjust, and adapt; and to continue in their role as leaders of animal health and welfare and public health.

The 2021 World Veterinary Day will celebrate the work of veterinarians to protect animal and human health during the Covid-19 Pandemic.

Why Apply?

The World Veterinary Day Award is an opportunity to:

- Showcase your Association's diligent efforts to the global veterinary community
- Receive a prize of USD3500 to fund new activities, reward staff, provide scholarships, etc.
- Be honoured during a ceremony in your country/region/virtual or at the 2022 WVA Congress.
- Improve the visibility and recognition of the veterinary profession in your country and worldwide.

The Award

The WVA Member Association that undertakes activities that best embody this theme will be recognized with the World Veterinary Day Award.

Provided by the World Veterinary Association and HealthforAnimals, the Award is open to all WVA Veterinary Associations who submit evidence of activities that demonstrate their support of the WVDA 2021 Theme. This could include local campaigns, educational seminars for the public, media campaigns, new research, or anything else that promotes the veterinarian response to the COVID-19 crisis.

The Award value of USD 3500 will be provided directly to the Association, which may use it for activities, reward hard-working staff, provide scholarships, support their community, etc.
